RAMADAN VALUES

It is mentioned in a Hadith:

'Fasting is a shield. So when one of you is fasting, he should not use foul language or behave ignorantly.'

(Bukhari)

Ramadan is a month that teaches powerful values which shape character and strengthen the soul. These values are not limited to fasting alone; they guide Muslims toward a better way of living with iman, discipline, and compassion.

One of the most important Ramadan values is self-discipline. By fasting from dawn to sunset, a Muslim learns to control his desires, habits, and emotions. This discipline helps build patience and inner strength, encouraging us to make positive changes in our daily lives.

Another key value is compassion. Experiencing hunger and thirst helps us practically understand the struggles of the less fortunate. As a result, generosity increases through charity, feeding others, and acts of kindness. Ramadan reminds us to care for one another and to support those in need.

Gratitude is also central to Ramadan. Simple blessings such as food, water, health, and family become more meaningful. As Muslims we learn to appreciate what we have and thank Allah for every blessing, big or small.

Ramadan is a time for spiritual growth. Increased Salah, Zikr and recitation of the Qur'an, naturally strengthen the connection with Allah Ta'ala. This is the spiritual focus that brings peace to the heart and clarity to the mind.

Nusuk Hajj platform effectively replaces SAHUC for SA pilgrims: What you need to know

South African Hajj news for 2026 and beyond centers on a major shift to Saudi Arabia's Nusuk Hajj platform, replacing the South African Hajj and Umrah Council (SAHUC)'s role, reducing the quota (from 2,500 to 1,140), invalidating old waiting lists, and requiring direct booking with licensed Saudi providers via the new digital system, a move bringing SA in line with the UK and US but causing controversy over SAHUC's mandate and handling of funds.

Key Changes & What It Means for Pilgrims:

Direct Booking: You must register, select, and pay for packages directly on the Saudi-run Nusuk Hajj platform.

SAHUC's Role Ends: The South African Hajj and Umrah Council (SAHUC) is no longer the official Hajj affairs body.

Quota Cut: The quota is now 1,140 pilgrims, down from the previous 2,500.

Waiting List Invalidated: The long SAHUC waiting list is gone; everyone must reapply through Nusuk.

New Registration: Expect registration to open around late December 2025 for Hajj 1447 (2026).

Direct Support: Complaints and queries now go to the Saudi Ministry or Embassy.

Sajdatut-Tilawah

There are approximately 14 places in the Noble Qur'an where it is Wajib (compulsory) for a person to perform a Sajdah when the respective verse is heard or recited. Generally, the Sajdah Tilawah verses are marked in the Qur'an.

Hazrat Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه narrates that Rasulullah صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Whenever the son of Adam recites a verse of Sajdah and then makes Sajdah, Shaitan flees the place in tears. He shouts out, 'Woe unto me! The son of Adam was commanded with Sajdah and he made Sajdah, thereby gaining entry into Jannah. I was commanded with Sajdah and I refused. As a result I will end up in Jahannam.'" (Muslim)

Sajdatut-Tilawah should be made immediately upon recitation of the verse. If this is not possible then the Sajdah should not be unnecessarily delayed.

Paying Zakat on Wealth Gained within the Year

A common question that arises when calculating Zakat is: how long does Zakatable wealth need to be held in one's possession for Zakat to become compulsory on it.

Simply, Zakat is calculated on an annual basis, based on the possession of Zakatable wealth that is equivalent to or more than the threshold (Nisab) after deducting debts. One will be liable to pay Zakat on Zakatable wealth once the threshold is maintained for the year. If a person becomes completely insolvent in this period, then the cycle will be restarted once Zakatable wealth to the value of the Zakat threshold (Nisab) returns.

Once a person is liable to pay Zakat by virtue of possessing the Zakat threshold, wealth that enters one's possession within the year will fall within the Zakatable wealth. The period within which this comes into one's possession is not considered. ...READ MORE

TARAWEEH Q&A

DOWNLOAD NOW

Q. What is the status of Taraweeh in Islam?

A. It is Sunnatul Muakkadah (emphasised practice) for Muslim males to perform twenty Raka'ts of Taraweeh in congregation. If the entire community omits performing Taraweeh in congregation, all will be sinful.

Q. Is it permissible to forego Taraweeh and is there Qaza for missing the Taraweeh?

A. A person may be excused from Taraweeh due to a valid reason e.g. sickness, travel etc. However, to deliberately forego the Taraweeh without a valid Shar'i reason is impermissible. There is no Qaza for missing Taraweeh.

Q. Is it necessary to complete the recitation of the entire Quran in Taraweeh Salah?

A. It is Sunnah to complete the recitation of the entire Quran at least once in Taraweeh. The Imam should perform the Rakats at an average length and recite at a good pace for the ease of the congregation... READ MORE

Smart Sensors To Reduce Crowding at Masjid al-Haram

These sensors will allow for the tracking of pilgrims movements at entrances, exits, and internal corridors to keep track of the flow of the crowds. According to the General Authority for the Care of the Two Holy Mosques, this real-time data is critical in fostering safe and comfortable passage for all mosque visitors.

Field teams will utilise this information to better prevent crowd bottlenecks at these points, and will help reduce overcrowding in areas otherwise known to congest.

Duty-Free Trade Deal with China to be Signed

Following the US-imposed trade tariffs on select South African produce, China - being the biggest trade partner of South Africa - will sign an agreement that "will see South African exports getting duty-free access to the Chinese market and attract investment into South Africa", stated the ministry.

Trade Minister Parks Tau is currently on a working visit to China, and is overseeing this trade deal.

SASSA: Nationwide Review Saves Millions of Rands in Payouts

SASSA CEO, Themba Matlou, said, "The more we save, the more our people are covered with social assistance... Through data matching, we've identified thousands of beneficiaries who may no longer qualify."

This review process includes cross-checking beneficiaries with SARS, NSFAS, and credit bureaus for payout eligibility.

Matlou added, "This collaboration ensures that only those who truly need assistance are supported."

RELATIONSHIP WITH THE IN-LAWS

INTRODUCTION

Allah Ta'ala created the relationships of family lineage and that of in-laws as mentioned by Him in the Qur'an (Al-Furqan 25:54).

Hazrat Muhammad r guided human beings towards the way of good relationships between family and in laws, that leads to harmony, mercy and love on both sides.

The Qur'an and Hadith provide important guidance for Muslim families on maintaining strong and harmonious relationships with family and in-laws, and on managing these relationships with wisdom, understanding, balance and moderation.

GIANT LEAP

Becoming in-laws - parents-in-law or children-in-law - is indeed a giant leap in one's life. It brings with it new challenges, but also many blessings and bounties, if managed correctly, on the foundations of core Islamic values of appreciation, tolerance, forgiveness, love, mercy, compassion, etc... ## THE POWER OF AYATUL KURSI

The Most Virtuous Verse of the Noble Qur'an

Among the thousands of verses of the Qur'an, the most significant and virtuous is Ayatul Kursi (the Verse of the Throne). This verse is located in Surah Al-Baqarah - verse number 255. It is an oft recited verse and carries tremendous benefits and rewards.

Hazrat Ubay bin Ka'b ؓ narrates that Rasulullah ﷺ once asked him, "O Abal Munzir! Do you know which verse of the Qur'an is the greatest?" I replied, "Allah and His messenger ﷺ know best." He ﷺ repeated the question. I then replied, "Allahu La ilha illa Huwal Hayyul Qayyum (Ayatul Kursi)". Rasulullah ﷺ then struck my chest and said, "Congratulations on your knowledge O Abal Munzir." (Muslim)

Hazrat Ali ؓ narrates, "I heard Rasulullah ﷺ on this Mimbar saying, 'Only death is a barrier in front of Jannah for that person who recites Ayatul Kursi after every Salah. Allah will protect the home of every person who recites it before sleeping, together with the homes of the his neighbours and many homes around him.'" (Bayhaqi fi Shuabul Iman)...READ MORE

Q&A

Q Is it permissible to perform Taraweeh whilst looking into the Quran?

A The preferred opinion of the Hanafi Mazhab (school) is that looking into the Mushaf (text of the Quran Shareef) during Salah invalidates the Salah. Thus, whether it's a voluntary or obligatory Salah, it is impermissible to look into the Mushaf whilst performing Salah.

The jurists provide two reasons for this prohibition:

1. Examining the Mushaf, flipping its pages, and similar actions amount to engaging in multiple actions that are not part of Salah (Amal Katheer). That would give the impression to an observer that one is not actually in Salah.

2. Seeking assistance in recitation from the Mushaf is considered to be akin to something external to Salah, which is not permitted.

Q Can a Ma'zoor (excused person) lead Taraweeh Salah?

A In principle, a Ma'zoor is someone who cannot maintain Wudhu between two Salahs. To determine if one is a Ma'zoor, select the two Salahs with the shortest interval, typically Asr and Maghrib. If one is unable to find a time between these two Salahs to perform Salah with Wudhu (even if performed sitting), one will be categorised as a Ma'zoor. It suffices for a Ma'zoor that the issue arises once between each Salah for one to remain classified as such. If the excuse does not occur at all between two Salahs, the individual will no longer be considered a Ma'zoor, and the rules applicable to Ma'zoor status will cease to apply.

The Imam of a Ma'zoor shall not be valid, if the congregation are not Ma'zoor.

Q Can females wear imitation silver rings? I know there's a difference of opinion (or there may be) about wearing fake gold/silver.

A In principle, it is only permissible for females to wear gold or silver rings, or rings plated with gold or silver. Wearing a ring made of metals other than gold and silver is deemed impermissible.

Q What should I do if I have accumulated interest money?

A In principle, interest money should be returned to the specific individual/s it was received/accrued from. Where determining this is not possible, it should be disposed in charity without the intention of reward. Generally, Interest funds cannot be used for any personal benefit or gain.

Q Can a child who is not Baligh (mature) lead the congregation in Taraweeh Salah?

A According to the Hanafi Mazhab (school), the preferred view is that the Imam should be an adult (Baligh) to lead adults in all Salahs including the Taraweeh Salah.

Q Is it permissible for a woman to recite slightly audibly in Salah if she is alone in the room, as it helps to concentrate better?

A There are two scenarios:

Sirry (inaudible) Salah such as Zuhr and Asr - One should recite the Qira'ah softly such that one can hear oneself and a third person is unable to hear.

Jahry (audible) Salah - One may recite audibly if there are no Ghayr Mahrams who could hear the recitation.

Q If a Masjid has a female section, can one who is in the state of Haidh sit in the women's section for programs? If not can a mat be placed at the back of the women's section for those in Haidh to sit on?

A It is not permissible for a woman in the state of Haidh to enter any place duly declared as a Shari' Masjid. However, if the ladies section is not part of the Masjid, but rather the Sahn etc., then it will be permissible for her to sit in this section. Hence, if the ladies section is part of the Masjid proper, then she will not be allowed to enter the ladies section.

Burping in the Masjid and public places!

A Muslim must be mindful of those around him and avoid causing even the slightest inconvenience to anyone. A common problem experienced in Ramadan is excessive burping in Salah, especially in Taraweeh. The odour that emanates from the mouth causes inconvenience and is offensive to other Musallees.

Abdullah bin Umar ؓ narrates: "Once a person burped in the presence of Rasulallah ﷺ. Rasulallah ﷺ said to him: 'Do not burp near us, for verily the people that are most satiated in this world will be the most hungry on the day of Qiyamah.'" (Tirmizi & Ibnu Majah)

Who can pay Fidyah for missed fasts?

Fidyah is the Arabic term for compensation for one who was unable to fast in Ramadan. Only that person who has no hope of fasting again, like the very old and chronically or terminally ill, will pay Fidyah for missed fasts. Persons who may have been excused from fasting due to temporary illness or travel must make Qadha (for the missed fasts).

The case of a pregnant/breastfeeding woman (or anyone else due to sickness or any other reason) who was unable to fast in Ramadan should make up for the fast once normal health is regained.
